01 Place signs where guests pause.

Entrances, Ticket Office, Food Court, restaurant and Arcade.

02 Open it in a phone browser.

No app installation. The map, programme and daily picks are already in this patter.

03 Make phone navigation even simpler.

Next step: large What's on · Food & offers · Park map buttons alongside the book view.

Durable QR signs reduce daily handouts. Sign production, upkeep and staff time still have a cost.

Many ways to discover it.
One actual guide to open.

01 Social media brings guests in.

Facebook: highlights + guide link. Instagram: Story link sticker + profile link.
TikTok: highlights + profile link where supported.

02 The park keeps it visible.

Booking messages, park screens and a Wi-Fi welcome page if available. Each route opens this same guide.

03 The team introduces it.

“Scan here for today’s activities, map and special offers.” Staff and screens can help guests without internet.

AN INTERESTING FACT ABOUT LUKA

Luka has travelled to more than 134 countries and visited six continents.

Today: the personalities behind the animals.

The actual front page pairs “36 animals. Countless personalities.” with three keeper-led sessions.

Tonight: meet Luka.

The actual final page introduces the manager and an interesting personal fact.

Tomorrow: leave a little curiosity.

Next-edition ideas: a manager clue, a keeper’s answer, a family map challenge or a new food favourite.

Animal and manager features are already in the sample patter. Tomorrow’s clues and challenges are proposed additions; use confirmed facts and real stories.

Three daily opportunities.
Here they are in the patter.

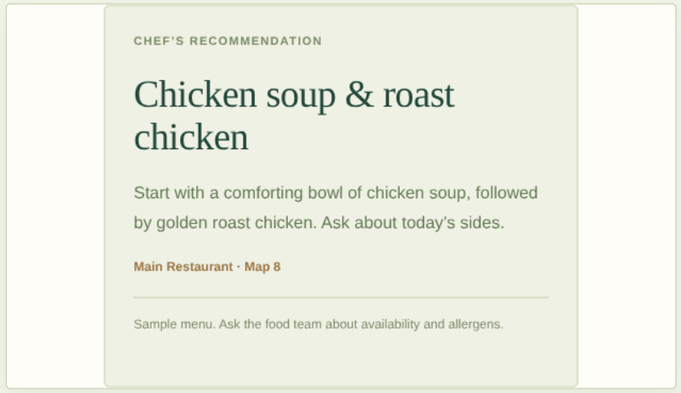

All three examples are on page 03, “Good to know”. Click a clipping to see its position on the full page.

01 / A FOOD CHOICE

Make lunch part of the day.

The guest journey is already there. Connect one moment to the next.

01 A keeper story → a family lunch.

Use the front-page animal sessions to introduce the chef's recommendation on page 03.

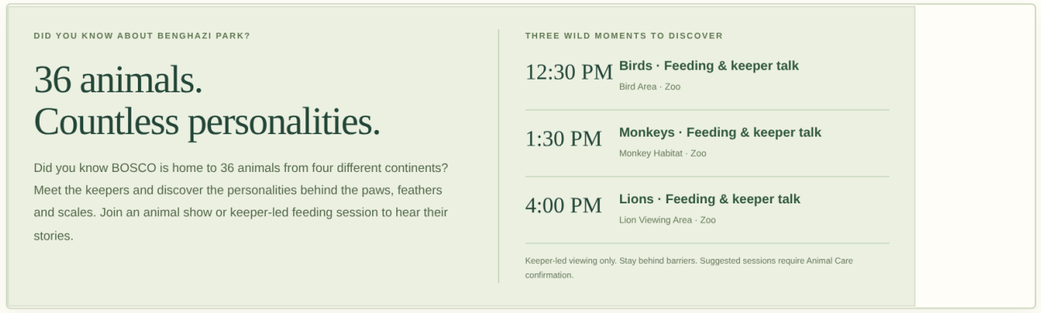

02 An attraction → a future celebration.

The Arcade is already listed. Add an approved birthday or group enquiry route in a future edition.

03 An afternoon pause → a refreshment.

The actual drink feature gives the team a natural recommendation at a useful moment.
