01

THE EXISTING GUIDE · A FOUNDATION TO BUILD ON

Useful today.
Interesting again tomorrow.

Give guests a reason to open the guide before asking them to buy.

01 / DISCOVER

A surprising park fact.

Animal personalities, keeper stories and a different discovery each day.

02 / PLAN

The day’s programme.

Show times, keeper sessions and family activities in one place.

03 / FIND

A familiar park map.

Help guests find their next activity, attraction or food stop.

04 / TASTE

A daily recommendation.

The chef’s pick, a refreshing drink and a relevant offer.

05 / MEET

A person behind the park.

Introduce a manager, their story and an interesting personal fact.

06 / TAKE PART

A small family challenge.

Ask a question today and tease a new discovery for tomorrow.

A few permanent signs.
A fresh guide every day.

Use one stable web address. Update the dated content at that address.

SCAN TO PREVIEW THE CURRENT GUIDE

Open the guide preview

Working prototype · sample programme

01 Place it where guests pause.

Entrances, Ticket Office, Food Court, restaurant and Arcade.

02 Make opening it simple.

Scan with a phone camera and open the guide in a browser. No app installation is required.

03 Keep the choice clear.

Recommend large mobile buttons: What’s on · Food & offers · Park map. Offer the book view as another way to browse.

Durable QR signs replace the need for a daily handout for every guest. Sign production, maintenance and staff time still have a cost.

Before arrival.
Throughout the visit.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Bring the day into their feed.

Facebook: daily highlights and a clickable guide link.

Instagram: a Story link sticker and profile link.

TikTok: a short highlights video and profile link, where the account supports it.

PARK COMMUNICATION

Make the guide easy to find.

Add the link to booking and group-visit messages.

If guest Wi-Fi is available, add it to the welcome page.

Show upcoming activities and the QR on park screens.

A HUMAN WELCOME

Let staff introduce it.

“Welcome to BOSCO! Scan here for today’s activities, map and special offers.”

For guests without internet access, staff devices and park screens can show the main information.

On the same phone, use a clickable link. QR codes work well on signs, printed materials, larger screens or another device.

Leave a little curiosity for the next edition.

Keep favourite features in the same place. Change the story each day.

TODAY'S DISCOVERY

36 animals. Countless personalities.

Meet the keepers and discover the personalities behind the paws, feathers and scales.

EXAMPLE FROM THE CURRENT BOSCO TODAY GUIDE

Guess tomorrow's manager.

Reveal a clue today, then introduce the person in the next edition.

Ask a keeper.

Turn a genuine guest question into tomorrow's short answer.

Have you tried it yet?

Rotate the attraction, dish or outlet in the spotlight.

Make a family discovery.

Use a map clue, daily question or a proposed discovery trail.

Use confirmed facts and real staff stories. Guest photos and contributions should be used with permission.

Three daily opportunities.
One useful guide.

Start with one food offer, one attraction spotlight and one upgrade.

01

A FOOD CHOICE

Make lunch part of the day.

Feature the chef’s recommendation, a family meal or an agreed quiet-time offer.

EXAMPLE: CHICKEN SOUP & ROAST CHICKEN

02

AN EXPERIENCE

Introduce the next adventure.

Give an attraction a clear reason to visit, with its location, price and how to participate.

EXAMPLE: DISCOVER THE ARCADE OR KARTING

03

AN UPGRADE

Add a little more to the purchase.

Offer a suitable drink, side or meal upgrade when guests are already choosing food.

EXAMPLE: ADD TODAY’S VIRGIN PIÑA COLADA

Campaign concepts for approval. Confirm product availability, selling prices, costs and margin before publishing an offer.

The right suggestion.
At a useful moment.

AFTER A KEEPER SESSION	“Ready for a family lunch?” Suggest the Main Restaurant’s daily recommendation and show its map location.	AN ACTIVITY TO A FOOD STOP
WHILE EXPLORING THE ARCADE	“Planning a birthday?” Introduce an approved party or group package and a clear enquiry route.	A VISIT TO A FUTURE BOOKING
DURING AN AFTERNOON PAUSE	“Make it a little more tropical.” Spotlight the alcohol-free refreshment of the day and where to order it.	A FOOD BREAK TO AN UPGRADE

Use natural breaks in the visit. Connect recommendations to the programme, the outlet and the guest’s next decision.

Make the offer clear.
Make it easy to claim.

PROPOSED FOOD TRUCK OFFER

Your second smash burger, half price.

Buy 2 eligible smash burgers and 1 Pepsi in one order. The lower-priced burger is 50% off.

SHOW CODE: BOSCOBURGER

12–5 PM · Participating Food Trucks · One discount per qualifying bundle. While stocks last. No combined offers. Eligible burgers, Pepsi size and selling prices to be confirmed.

Five answers every offer needs.

1. What does the guest receive?
2. How much does it cost?
3. Where can it be claimed?
4. When is it available?
5. How does the guest redeem it?

Agree the cashier process, eligible items and terms before launch. The code above is an example manual redemption method.

Cost the offer before approving it.

Sell the experience.
Give guests reasons to choose.

MARKETING FEATURE	WHAT THE GUEST SEES	COMMERCIAL PURPOSE
Chef & outlet spotlight	Meet the chef and discover a recommended dish.	Help an outlet or product get noticed.
A clear meal bundle	One agreed price for a burger, fries and drink.	Encourage a suitable basket upgrade.
Quiet-time promotion	A real offer during an agreed quieter period.	Test demand at a time that needs support.
Birthday & group enquiries	A package introduction and one enquiry button.	Create leads for future bookings.
Next-visit invitation	An approved, dated reason to return.	Encourage a future visit.
Genuine guest favourites	Real recommendations and permitted photos.	Help guests discover an option with confidence.

All are proposed features. Use genuine availability and agreed terms; prices and packages need the responsible team’s approval.

One daily owner.
One coordinated edition.

01

Prepare.

Guest Services or Marketing gathers the story, manager profile and programme.

CONFIRM ONE NAMED CONTENT OWNER

02

Confirm.

Animal Care, Entertainment, attractions and F&B check their facts, times, menus and offers.

BRIEF CASHIERS ON ANY PROMOTION

03

Publish & share.

Update the dated guide, check it on a phone, then share the link through signs, staff and social channels.

CHECK LINKS AND REMOVE EXPIRED OFFERS

Allow for the real costs. Durable signs and placement · daily staff time · website maintenance · any analytics or redemption setup. Hosting arrangements should be confirmed.

Seven days.
Learn before expanding.

2 QR locations: entrance + Food Court

1 participating food outlet

1 daily content owner

REACH

Guide visits.

Use agreed link analytics if enabled. Configure measurement before the pilot.

ACTION

Offer redemptions.

Cashiers record the approved offer code and qualifying transactions.

VALUE

Spend & contribution.

Review basket value and profit after food costs and discounts, using comparable trading periods.

EXPERIENCE

Guest & team feedback.

Record useful questions, confusing wording and the staff effort needed each day.

Set the baseline and success criteria before launch. These are measurement proposals, not results; the current guide has no analytics or live redemption tracking.

THE PROPOSED NEXT STEP

Approve a small pilot. Build on what works.

Use BOSCO Today to help guests discover the park and test relevant commercial offers.

Open the existing BOSCO Today guide

Agree four things.

1. The daily content owner.
2. The initial offers, pricing and terms.
3. Two approved QR placements.
4. The pilot measures and review date.

RECOMMENDED START

7 days · 2 QR locations · 1 food outlet
Daily review, followed by a management decision on expansion.

Something to discover. Something to taste. A reason to come back.
